

Let us help you realise your aspirations and achieve your full potential!

The Food and Beverage Development Fund wants to help dedicated people realise their aspirations and achieve their full potential. We provide financial support to help individuals to further their skills and knowledge through training, education and/or research within South Australia's critically important food & beverage industries. We are proud to be able to support the learning of individuals in our baking, beverage, food processing and meat industry sectors and provide between $1,000 and $10,000 to each successful applicant.

We firmly believe in the importance of learning and are committed to assisting those individuals who share this belief. If you would like to develop your skills and knowledge in your chosen career please contact us to see how we may be able to assist you.

With our help, you could end up like....

Keva Freeman - Pastry Chef

The funding provided by Food & Beverage Development Fund has allowed Keva to attend courses at Savour Chocolate & Patisserie School in Melbourne.

She has learnt many new skills including extensive techniques on producing chocolates, pralines, truffles, nougats, jellies, confectionary, gateaux, French macaroons and chocolate sculptures.

A highlight for Keva has been the invaluable training she has received from international experts and pastry chefs with a vast knowledge of chocolate and patisserie.

If you are a passionate Pastry Chef who would like to improve their knowledge and skills this could be your ideal opportunity.
